THE GUIDE OF THE SA HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

The SA Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) has, in terms of section 10 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act (PAIA), developed a guide containing information reasonably required by a person wishing to exercise or protect any right in terms of PAIA. This guide contains amongst others the following information:

- The purpose of PAIA;
- The manner, form, and costs of a request for access to information held by a body;
- Assistance available from Information Officers and the SAHRC;
- Legal remedies when access to information is denied;
- When access to information may be denied; and
- The contact details of Information Officers in the National, Provincial and Local Government.

The Guide is available on the SAHRC's website at www.sahrc.org.za. Copies of the Guide can also be obtained at all the SAHRC's provincial offices of which the contact details are included in the Guide. Enquiries regarding the Guide can be addressed to the SAHRC of which the contact details are as follows:

HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE PRACTICE

Requests for access to records held by the practice must be made on the request form that is attached to this Manual. It is also available from the Information Officer (refer to the contact details stipulated above) or from the SAHRC website (www.sahrc.org.za)

When a record is requested, please note that:

- The fees are prescribed for requesting and accessing information and records held by the practice. A requestor (other than a personal requestor) is required to pay the prescribed fee of R50 before a request will be processed. Details of these fees payable may be obtained from the Information Officer. The fees are also available on the website of the SAHRC. A requestor may be called upon to pay the additional fees prescribed by regulation for searching and compiling the information, which has been requested, including copying charges.
- The fact that information and records are held by the practice as listed in this Manual should not be construed as confirming upon any requestor any right to the information or record. Access to the requested records or information or parts of the records or information may be refused in terms of the law.
- On the Request Form all details must be completed, including the right the requestor wants to exercise or protect by requesting the information and an explanation why the record requested is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- The requestor must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information officer to identify the record and the requestor.
- If the requestor is acting on behalf of someone else, the requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the requestor is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- If the record is part of another record, the requestor will only be allowed access to the part(s) that pertains to the information he/she wants or is entitled to, and not the rest of the record.

All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act. The Act allows the Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act. A requestor can, for example, not access another person's confidential information, or trade or commercial secrets of a business.

An answer on a request for information must be made within 30 days of the request, and if not granted and the requestor is not satisfied with the reasons for the refusal of access, he/she can approach the courts.

PRACTICE HOURS*: Monday to Thursday - 08h00 to 17h00, Friday - 08h00 to 16h00, Saturday by arrangement

Dependent on availability of the therapist(s), appointments may be scheduled outside of the stipulated working hours.*
